STORM McDONALD

Storm McDonald was born in Heber on November 1, 1890, son of Joseph S. McDonald and Mary Elizabeth Rasband McDonald. He attended schools of Heber. Millie Murdock was first grade teacher and Henry Aird, principal. He had as grade school teachers all three Wootton brothers, Will, George and Attewall. On finishing the eighth grade in Heber and there being no high school in our county, he attended BYU. Having taken up the clarinet under instruction of Uncle Moroni Morris, he returned to Heber nearly every weekend to play for dances with an Heber orchestra comprised of Jay Jensen, Andy Anderson, Dolph and Seymour Duke, Storm McDonald and Guy Alexander. He also played in the BYU band under Professor Sauer and in the concert orchestra under Professor Gudmunson. He studied English under Miss Schofield and algebra with Harvey Fletcher. This was in 1907 and 1908.

HEBER BIOGRAPHIES

In the fall of 1908 the Wasatch High School opened, with J. W. Robinson as principal and James Johnson, Henry Raile, O. A. Whitaker, Hugh Holdaway and Miss Wilcox as the faculty. He was active there in music and athletics and in student affairs. The following year he graduated from three-year high school course as president of the class of 1910. He received a call to fill a mission in the Northern States, and left in June for Chicago. He served 26 months in the northern and southern Illinois conferences under German E. Ellsworth, mission president, and returned home in August, in time to enroll for fourth year high school. As editor of the first edition of "Wasona," year book of 1913, it was the largest and finest year book published to that time.

On invitation of Guy B. Alexander and the Thatchers of Logan to attend school at the Utah Agricultural College and to play in Thatcher's orchestra in their new Lyric Theater, he entered the college the fall of 1910 and was active in music there. He played in a Logan band, the college orchestra under Thatcher, and the Spicker college saxophone quartet, and during the next two years had charge of all dance music on the campus. He also took part in the Logan Boosters' show each year and was "end man" in their minstrels. He found time to play baseball on the college team and won the "A" as pitcher on the baseball team. Specializing in irrigation and drainage, he graduated with the class of 1916 from the school of agriculture engineering.

Engaged to teach at Wasatch High at a salary of $800 for the year, he taught at Wasatch for three years. Subjects were music, mathematics and English. During the second year he became interested in the need for better library facilities in the county and was instrumental in persuading the state librarian, Miss Downey, from the State Capitol, to make several trips to Heber to study the situation and make recommendations. She and McDonald met with the Wasatch County Commission and persuaded them to levy a half-mill tax for county library purposes. Book donations and funds from the public were raised by means of dances and other activities, and the first county library board was created with Storm McDonald as the first president. James Ritchie, John A. Fortie and Jess Nelson were other board members and Millie Witt was librarian.

He served as Wasatch County Red Cross chairman two years.

Baseball interest was high at this time and a stake league was going strong, with a team representing each ward in the stake. There never were larger crowds nor more interest in baseball than in 1916 and 1917. Heber First and Second Wards were rated among the best. Storm McDonald was pitcher for Heber First Ward.

In Church work he was very active, being president of the Heber First Ward MIA, ward chorister and stake chorister, stake social committeeman, and stake missionary. He was Smith-Hughes agricultural instructor in high schools of the state in its early stages and was offered that position at Tooele High School. He moved to Tooele in September, 1919, in a Model-T truck. Boys under his direction took top honors at the Utah State Fair in judging and demonstrations. He also coached Tooele debaters to the state championship. He was Sunday school chorister in Tooele North Ward and played in the dance orchestra and on Tooele's baseball team.

After three years at Tooele he taught at Bingham High School a year, then took over the district manager's job for a Denver manufacturer for Utah and Idaho territory. While carrying on this work he purchased a home in Salt Lake and began some real estate work, which soon occupied all his time for about two years. He became interested in purchasing a meat and grocery business of Dan and Relia McMillan at Heber. With Moroni Moulton as partner, he purchased this business and built the two brick homes on Main Street across from the high school.

However, he sold his interest in the business to his partner and returned to teaching at Wasatch High, teaching science and mathematics, and by 1935 he completed 20 years of high school teaching. During all this time he was active in community and Church affairs, serving as president of the Heber Lions Club, representative in State Legislature, president Utah Guernsey Breeders three terms, president of Utah Purebred Dairy Cattle Assn., director of the Utah Auto Dealers' Assn., and director of the American Dairy Association of Utah.

In June, 1917, he married Verna M. Jones of Lehi, Utah. They had four children, three boys and one girl: Guy S., Kent J., Joseph Ralph and Alice Elizabeth (Betty).

Let's Get Acquainted

Carl F. Schettler was born January 23, 1943, in Salt Lake City, Utah, an only child of Ernest D. and Ruth Josephine Nielson Schettler. Carl's father was a prominent businessman in Salt Lake. He was interested in contracting, consulting and the car business.

While in high school, Carl's main interests were his science classes and skiing. He graduated from St. Mark's High School in 1961. From 1961 - '62, he attended Case Institute in Cleveland, Ohio, where he studied chemistry. In 1962 he returned to Salt Lake and enrolled at the University of Utah to study industrial engineering. He graduated in 1966 and went on to Portland State M.B.A. where he gained his master's degree of business in 1971.

Carl's first job was at Hill Air Force Base as an Industrial Engineer; his next job was with "White Stag," in Portland, Oregon; he left there as plant manager, and went on to Seattle, Washington, with "Farwest Garments."

Carl left the northwestern states and moved on to Los Angeles, Calif., where he worked with the Catalina Swim Suit Co. When he left, he was vice president of manufacturing.

Carl was ready to ease up with work in 1973, he wanted a change of scenery too, so he returned to Utah and for the next ten years he was interested in various businesses, mainly real estate.

As he was ready for marriage, he was careful to choose someone with interests similar to his own. He was very serious about wanting to make a happy home and have children. On March 1, 1980, Carl F. Schettler and LaRue Vogel were married. They were both natives of Utah, whose people were early settlers and members of the LDS Church. Both loved to ski, in fact, their interests are so alike that in the four years of marriage they have never had a serious quarrel. They are the parents of two year old Hans and one year old Heidi. Carl said it is really a thrill to come home to his family each day.

I asked if they had built a new home or bought an older one, and he said he had designed and built his home; it is an English Tudor building in a setting just right for it. He said that he likes to drive up Snake Creek, above Midway, to Brighton and down the canyon to his home which is near the mouth of the canyon. Of course this route is to be taken in a four-wheel-drive vehicle, but it is much shorter than Parley's Canyon route.

In 1982, Carl bought his own Chevrolet business, situated at 901 South Main, Heber City, Utah, and he comes to Heber several times each week on business.

One day, a while back, a woman left her car with the engine running; she failed to put the car into full parking position and after she got out, the car backed across the highway and into the snow area at Carl's Chevie Sales lot before coming to a stop. While the employees and others marveled that the car had not caused a crash, Carl quipped, "Look at that, even the cars know the best place to come!"

It is good to have you with us Carl, and we hope to see you and your family spend time in our valley activities as the years go by.

were born seven children: Lloyd, who married Esther Hurt; Nettie M., wife of Arnold C. Brems; Delbert L., who married Mabel Wager; Frances Delila; Aldred W.; Edward S. and Mary Emily, who died April 2, 1929, at the age of fourteen years.

ALFRED SHARP for over fifteen years has been an honored public official of Wasatch County. He is county clerk, recorder and auditor. All classes of people know and appreciate his qualifications both as a business man and public servant.

Mr. Sharp has lived in this section of Utah all his life. He was born at Heber, February 19, 1886, son of Jonathan and Anna (Jowett) Sharp. His father came to Utah with one of the last ox trains across the plains. He was a steam engineer, and followed his occupation in many saw mills in the district. Later he took up farming and was one of the highly respected citizens of his district. He died January 1, 1919.

Alfred Sharp attended the grammar and high schools of Heber City, later completed a course in bookkeeping, and in such leisure as he has in his official duties he is devoting himself to the study of law. In 1911 he entered the livery business in Wyoming, but in 1912 returned to Heber, where he was a salesman and mechanic for the Studebaker Motor Company. In 1913 he became bookkeeper for the Heber Mercantile Company.

Mr. Sharp in 1916 was elected county clerk of Wasatch County. The county clerk is ex-officio, also auditor and recorder. The faithfulness and efficiency with which he has performed his duties has kept him continuously in office. He served three two-year terms, and is now in the second of his four-year terms. Mr. Sharp was also city treasurer of Heber in 1916-17. He is active in the Chamber of Commerce and is an elder in the Latter Day Saints Church, has been superintendent of the Sunday School at Heber, and is a member of the Mutual Improvement Association.

He married, July 8, 1911, Miss Della Eugene Michie, of Wasatch County. They have three children, Fenton L., N. Fawn and E. Lamar.

REUBEN GARDNER, who resides at Pine Valley, Washington County, and is one of the venerable and honored representatives of ranch industry in this section of the state, was born in the Mill Creek community of Salt Lake County, Utah, September 1, 1857. He is a son of Robert and Jane (McCune) Gardner, the former having been born in Killyyth, Scotland, and the latter having been born in Canada, of Irish ancestry. Robert Gardner and his wife were numbered among the original Utah colonists of the Latter Day Saints and here settled in the Mill Creek district of Salt Lake County in 1847. In the early part of the 1860 decade they were called to the Dixie region as pioneer settlers, and were one of the first five families to settle on the old camp ground, then called the Adobe Yard, at St. George, Washington County. They were later called to Pine Valley and, as an experienced timber man, with former experience in Canada, Robert Gardner was given assignment to the manufacturing of lumber at Pine Valley, where

Recognizes Local Resident

16 Dec 1987

DETROIT — David B. Spencer, new vehicle salesperson for Spencer Auto Sales, Chrysler-Plymouth dealer, Heber City, received an award for individual performance in selling Chrysler-Plymouth vehicles.

A resident of Heber, Spencer has reached the Silver level of recognition in Chrysler-Plymouth's unique Sales Professionals Club.

Specially-designed incentives and awards are provided for outstanding product knowledge and sales achievement at three performance levels — Bronze, Silver and Gold. Membership in each level is determined by points earned for sales of new cars and trucks.

The program continues throughout the 1987 model sales year. The top 50 Chrysler-Plymouth retail sales personnel will win a trip to a three-day National Sales Conference.
